4th October Y6 Cerdd Dant demo

8th October Flu vaccines, please return consent forms

11th October Harvest festival at St Mary's church led by Y3 and Y4. Food donations to go to classes for Flintshire foodbank.

We have had a very busy two weeks with two residential taking place. Some year 5 pupils went to Cardiff and enjoyed seeing the famous sites of the city and they also visited the Senedd. Whilst year 6 went to Nant BH and enjoyed climbing, gorge walking, canoeing and hiking.

This term we have two very important assessments. All the school have been working hard at learning about the Rights of the Child under the watchful eye of the school super ambassadors, we have this assessment for the Silver award on the 16th October. The whole school has also been improving their Welsh and we have our assessment for Cymraeg Campus bronze award on 13th November. Pob Lwc Pawb!

Finally this picture sums up what enjoyment children get when learning outside of the classroom! Thanks to all the staff for giving up their time away from their own families to take the children away. Diolch!
